Rules for Admission of Foreign Citizens to Residency Programs at KubSMU

To apply for a residency program as a foreign citizen (not holding Russian citizenship) for a paid form of education, the applicant must fill out an electronic application for participation in the admission contest on the KubSMU website (<https://abitur-ord.ksma.ru/>) from July 1 to August 11, 2025, and upload copies of the following documents during the application process:

- Passport of the foreign citizen (all pages);
- Translation of the passport into Russian;
- Original educational document of state sample (certificate, diploma, testimony);
- Translation of the educational document into Russian, notarized;
- Legalization of the educational document (except in cases provided by law);
- Confirmation from the Federal Service for Supervision in Education and Science regarding the equivalence of the educational document (except in cases provided by law).

You may also submit the documents at the International Office.

Entrance exams are scheduled to be conducted in the form of remote testing via video conferencing from August 18 to August 19, 2025.

Upon successfully passing the admission contest, the applicant will be enrolled for 1 year of residency as a resident studying in Russian. Afterwards, students will undergo an additional medical commission and subsequently attend classes and will be accommodated in a dormitory (if needed).

After that, the university issues an invitation or extends the current study visa (the visa must be valid until at least August 31, 2025). If the student is from a country with a visa-free entry regime, their stay will be extended (the current stay must not expire before August 31, 2025). Additionally, the migration card must indicate the purpose of arrival as STUDY.

The current tuition fees for the following specialties are as follows:

- Medical, Pediatric, and Preventive Medicine profiles: 253,000 RUB/year;
- Dental profile: 330,000 RUB/year;
- Pharmaceutical profile: 223,000 RUB/year.

The cost of accommodation in the dormitory for residents is 16,000 RUB/year.

Please note that, according to the admission rules of KubSMU, payment for education by foreign students must be made within the established deadlines.

We would like to inform you that on December 29, 2021, Federal Law No. 274 of July 1, 2021, came into effect, making amendments to Federal Law No. 115 of July 25, 2002, "On the Legal Status of Foreign Citizens." All foreign citizens arriving after December 29, 2021, must undergo a medical examination and fingerprinting within 3 months of their arrival in the Russian Federation. The cost is approximately 10,000 rubles.

Payment for accommodation in the dormitory must be made for the entire year before moving into the dormitory.
